Oh! America, America!.. ....	43

In this first prophecy, God warned his people that many of the most anointed ministers would turn aside from fully following God's way. Some would turn to sin, but many others would end up in a watered-down or compromised ministry. A few would eventually turn back to serving God.<sup>1</sup>

In 1965 Brother Stanley Frodsham prophesied:

When I visit my people with mighty revival power, it is to prepare them for the darkness ahead. With the glory will come great darkness, for the glory is for preparing my people for the darkness. I will enable my people to go through because of the visitation of my spirit. Take heed to yourselves lest you be puffed up and think that you have arrived. Many will be puffed up as in the olden days, for many then received my message, but they did not continue in it. Didn't I anoint Jehu? (2nd Kings 9&10; 2nd Chronicles 22:7-9) Yet the things I desired were not accomplished in his life.

Listen to the messenger, but do not hold men's persons in admiration. For many whom I will anoint mightily with signs and miracles will become lifted up and will fall by the wayside. I do not desire this; I have made provision for them to stand. I have called many into this ministry and equipped them; but remember that many will fall. They will be like bright lights and people will delight in their light. But they will be taken over by deceiving spirits and will lead many of my people astray.

Take heed carefully to these things, for in the last days seducing spirits will come (1 Timothy 4:1) who will turn many of my anointed ones away. Many will fall through various lusts, and through the sins that will be abounding in the land. But if you will seek me diligently, I will put my spirit within you (Ezekiel 36:27). When someone turns to the right hand or to the left, you must not turn with them, but keep your eyes wholly on the Lord.

<sup>1</sup> Stanley Frodsham was a teacher and a prophet in the early years of the Pentecostal movement and the early years of the Charismatic movement. He was editor of the Pentecostal Evangel and author of Smith Wigglesworth: Apostle of Faith.

The coming days are the most dangerous, difficult and dark, but there will be a mighty outpouring of my spirit on many cities. My people must be diligently warned concerning the days that are ahead. Many will turn after seducing spirits; many are already seducing my people. It is those who do righteousness that are righteous. Many cover their sins by theological words. But I warn you of seducing spirits who instruct my people in an evil way. I will anoint many of these so that they may sift and purify, for I would have a holy people.

Many will come with seducing spirits and hold out lustful enticements. You will find that after I have visited my people again, the way will become narrower and narrower, and fewer will walk in it. But don't be deceived, the ways of righteousness are my ways. For though Satan comes as an angel of light (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15), do not take heed to him; for those who perform miracles and do not speak righteousness are not from me. I warn you intensely that I am going to judge my house and have a church without spot or wrinkle when I come. I desire to open your eyes and give you spiritual understanding, that you may not be deceived, but that you may walk with uprightness of heart before me, loving righteousness and hating every evil way. Look unto me and I will make you to perceive with the eyes of the spirit the things that lurk in darkness, that are not visible to the human eye. Let me lead you in this way that you may perceive the powers of darkness and battle against them. It is not a battle against flesh and blood; for if you battle in that way, you accomplish nothing. But if you let me take over and battle against the powers of darkness, then they are defeated, and then liberation is brought to my people.

I warn you to search the scriptures diligently concerning these last days, for the things that are written will indeed be made manifest. There will come deceivers among my people in increasing numbers, who will speak for the truth and will gain the favor of the people. For the people will examine the scriptures and say, "What these men say is true." Then, when they have gained the hearts of the people, then and only then will they bring out these wrong doctrines. Therefore, I say that you should not give your hearts to men, nor hold people's persons in admiration [sometimes called 'the personality cult']. It is through these very people that Satan will enter into my people.

Watch out for seducers. (2nd Timothy 3:13)

Do you think a seducer will brandish a new heresy and flaunt it before the people? No, he will first speak the words of righteousness and truth, and will appear as a minister of light declaring the Word. The people's hearts will be won. Then, when the hearts are won, he will bring out his doctrines, and the people will be deceived. The people will say, "Did he not speak thus and thus, and did we not examine it in the Word? Therefore he is a minister of righteousness. This that he has now spoken, we do not see in the Word, but it must be right, for the other things he spoke were true." Don't be deceived. For the deceiver will first work to gain many hearts, and then he will bring out his insidious doctrines. You cannot discern those that are of me and those that are not from me when they start to preach. But seek me constantly, and then when these doctrines are brought out, you will have a witness in your heart that these are not of me. Don't be afraid, for I have warned you. Many will be deceived. But if you walk in holiness and uprightness before the Lord, your eyes will be open and the Lord will protect you. If you look constantly to the Lord, you will know when the doctrine changes, and will not be brought into it. If your heart is right, I will keep you; and if you will look constantly to me, I will uphold you.

This is how God's true servant will operate: his life will agree with the Word and his lips will give out that which is wholly true, and it will not be a mixture. When the mixture appears, then you will know he is not a minister of righteousness. The deceivers speak first the truth, and then error, to cover their own sins which they love. Therefore, I exhort and command you to study the Scriptures relative to seducing spirits, for this is one of the great dangers of these last days.

I desire you to be firmly established in my word and not in the personalities of men, so that you may not be turned aside as so many who are already turning aside. I would keep you in the paths of righteousness. Take heed to yourselves and do not follow the seducing spirits that are already manifesting themselves. Diligently inquire of me when you hear something that you have not seen in the word, and do not hold people's persons in admiration, for it is by this very method that Satan will destroy many of my people.

I have come that you may have life and have it more abundantly, that you may triumph where I triumphed. It was on the cross that I triumphed over all the powers of Satan; and I have called you to walk in the same path. It is when your life is on the cross that you will know the victory that I have experienced. As you are on the cross and seated in me, then you will know the power of the resurrection. When I come in my glory, the principalities and powers in the heavenly places will be broken. Do not be afraid, for I have given you power whereby you may tread down the powers of darkness and come forth victorious. It was on the cross that I triumphed over all the powers of the enemy. My life will flow through you as you enter into these precious truths. Look unto me, and appropriate my life for yourselves. As your eyes and desires are toward me, and you know what it is to be crucified with me, then you will live, and your anointing will increase. It was not in my life that I walked on the earth, but it was in my life when I was on the cross that I openly spoiled principalities and powers. (Colossians 2:15)

I am showing you truth that will cause you to overcome, to have power over the wicked one, truth that will liberate you and those around you. You will know also the fellowship of my sufferings. In the paths of judgment and righteousness the Lord God will lead his people and bring them into that place which he has chosen for them. For the Lord has chosen a place for his people, a place of righteousness and holiness where he will encamp round about them, and all who will be led by the Lord will be brought into this holy place. For the Lord delights to dwell in his people and to manifest himself—his nature and his life—through his people. The Lord's holiness will be manifested through his people.

Let the Lord lead you in difficult places. He led his people of old through a place where no man dwelt, where no man had passed through, in a place of great danger, and in the shadow of death. The Lord will indeed lead his people through such places, and yet he will bring them out into a place of danger, and many will fall to the right or to the left, many will camp on lesser ground. But the Lord has a place of holiness and no unclean thing will dwell among his people.

Put your trust in him and he will bring you into a place of holiness. He desires to bring his people into great glory, the likes of which has never been seen—that is what the Lord will do for those who put their trust in him. Yes, it is a place of darkness and great danger that separates his people and brings them into the place he would have them to walk. He will protect them from the voices that would turn them from his path. He will bring them through the dark places, and through the treacherous paths, out into the light of his glory. He will rejoice greatly over his beloved and cause you to be filled with unspeakable joy. He seeks to lead his people into a new place of grace and glory where he will indeed encamp among them. Put your trust in him, and he will surely bring you into this new place.

Don't be afraid of the coming days, but only be afraid of failing to walk in a manner pleasing to the Lord. In this time I am ordering and setting up my church and it will be pure, without spot or wrinkle. I will do a work in my beloved that has not been since the foundations of the world. I have shown you these things that you may seek the Lord diligently with all your heart, and that you may be a preserver of his people.

Do not run to this one nor to that one, for the Lord has so ordained that salvation is in him and in him alone. You must not turn to this shepherd or to that one, for there will be a great scattering on the earth. Therefore, look unto him, for he will indeed make these things clear to you. You cannot look here nor there, for wells that once had water will be no more. But, as you diligently seek him, he will increase your strength and your faith, that he may prepare you for this awesome time that is coming.

The truths that I have revealed to you must become a part of you, not just an experience, but a part of your very nature. Is it not written that I demand truth in the inward parts? (Psalm 51:6) It is the truth of the Lord expressed in your very being that will hold you steadfast. Many will experience the truth, but the truth must become a part of you, your very life. As men and women look upon you, they will hear not only the voice, but see the expression of the truth. Many will be overcome because they are not constant in my ways, and because they have not permitted the truths to become a part of them. I am showing you these truths that you may be prepared and having done all, to stand.

In this second prophecy, the prophetess prophesied that the next great revival would not come in the churches, but in the streets. God would raise people (even children) who would proclaim his true word with a true anointing that would set the people free.

— A PROPHECY FOR AMERICA

April 23, 1988 — God's prophetess, Gwen Shaw, stood up before a large crowd of people to deliver the message that God had given her, when suddenly an extremely loud clap of thunder was heard in that meeting hall! Everyone recognized God's awesome presence, but many screamed out with fear. Sister Gwen had to hold back till the cries of the people died down. Everyone recognized that God had put a mighty stamp of approval on this message:

The Lord God of the Heavens Says to His Own

I will appear unto this nation as I have never appeared to it before. I am coming—says the Lord—as I came up to Jerusalem to cleanse the temple. Don't you know, my people, that I came twice to Jerusalem to cleanse the temple?

First Visit

I came in the beginning of my ministry, yes, I came with fire, and I came with zeal. I made myself whips, and with these whips I whipped out the place. I overthrew the money changers, and I freed the doves—says the Lord. I will again free the doves—says the Lord—one more time. I will free my people who have the touch of the Holy Ghost upon them. They will fly out of the synagogues and the temples, they will fly out of their houses of bondages, and they will fly out of the houses of merchandise. No man will be able to capture them, and no one will be able to bind them, and no one will be able to put them into cages.

Second Visit

I am coming one more time—says the Lord—and I am coming this one last time. This is the last visitation to this nation. And this time as I come, I will come and they will know who I am. The first time I came to Jerusalem, they did not know my name, but the second time I came, they knew who I was, that I was Jesus of Nazareth. And this nation will know who I am when I come into their midst. There will be no doubting—there will be no asking—there will be trembling at my coming, for great fear will fall upon this nation. This nation has never known the fear of God as it will know that fear when I come the second time to cleanse my temple!

Yes, the Lord says to you: Those of you who know me, walk carefully before me. Those who have heard the sound of my trumpet, you sound it also. This is not something you need to learn, it is something you hear and repeat by the Spirit. The Lord says to his people, even to this nation of America: I have given you much—and of those to whom much has been given, much will be required! You have fallen into your sins, and you have fallen into your shame, and you have been an embarrassment to my name among the nations of the world. Yes, the heathen nations have learned sin from you, they have learned abomination from you, they have learned ugliness from you, they have learned treachery from you, they have learned deceitfulness from you, they have learned the love of money from you, they have learned the love of flesh from you, and they have learned fornication and perversion from you. You have defiled the nations of the world with your pornography and with your “gangsterisms,” and I say unto you, my children, I will visit this nation—put the blood on your doors! Yes, every day put the blood on your doors, for I will no more pass this way to bless, but I will pass this way to judge!

When I come this second time with my whip, when I come this time to cleanse you—I say to you—then there will be miracles and signs and wonders such as this nation has never seen, and they will come to me.

In the Streets, Not Churches

But they will find me in the streets. I will not walk in your churches; I will not walk in your temples. I will be found on the streets—says the Lord—I will be found in the cottages, and yes, I will be found in the outdoors. Masses will come together in the great outdoors.

Hundreds of thousands will come seeking to hear my gospel preached in purity. There will be no building large enough to hold it. There will be no way that man will be able to maintain that which I will be doing in that day. No one will chain it! For the Holy Ghost will burn like fire, and the fire of God will burn out the dross. The fire of God will cleanse and purify the living temples of the Lord.

The Judgment and Glory

Yes, and the glory of God will be seen even over vast areas of these states. For I will come, and the judgment and the glory will come together—says the Lord. Yes, do not think it will be one and then the other [the judgment and then the glory]. They will come together, my children. I will be there in judgment, and I will be there in the glory! I will visit this nation, and some I will judge and wipe out, and others I will lift up and bless.

Names never heard of will become names on the lips of man, and those who have been talked about with great pride and admiration and much advertising will be a defamation before the people. Man will not talk of church growth, but man will talk of revival. Man will not talk of visiting evangelists, but men will talk of the visitation of the Holy Ghost. I will come walking through the streets of this Jerusalem one more time. Yes, I have begun my work, and my whip is now in my hand, says the Lord. Therefore walk carefully before me, my people. Walk in holiness. Your space of grace has come to a close.

No Man Fit to Lead

Know that there is no man [fit] to stand in this White House. There is no man! I looked for a man to stand in the gap, but I did not find him—says the Lord. And because there is none, I have to judge this nation—says the Lord. I have to pour out my wrath upon them, for there is not enough righteousness in the nation to make you worthy of a godly leader and ruler. And because of your condition—says the Lord—I am coming to give you a taste of the bitterness of disobedience.

The Intercessors

Oh my children, my children, I have called you and called you, and I doubled your days of grace. Yes, I doubled them—says the Lord—for first there were only a few years, but I doubled them because you prayed. But you have neglected to [continue to] cry out to me. You have neglected to travail and to mourn and to cry, to fast and to weep, to abase yourselves. And what can I do—says the Lord your God? If there is no Moses on my mount making intercession, I must judge the people—says the Lord. If there are no Aarons and no Hurs to hold up the hands of the weak, I must judge. You have pushed my intercessors aside, and you have crushed them—says the Lord—and now there is no one to make intercession for you!

Yes, my children, my children, I love you. I stand weeping over you. How often I would have gathered you into my arms and under my wings as a hen would gather her chicks, but you were not willing. You ran in your own rebellious ways. Yes, and you have made yourself coverings that are not from me—says the Lord. And these coverings have been an abomination, for they have not protected you from my wrath—says God. And now, I come one last moment, but this time prepare your hearts, for it will not be only in sweetness, not only in honey, but it will be with tears.

Persecution

Yes, and the Lord would say to you, there will come a persecution in this nation such as the Christians have never known. It will be well organized, it will be under the control of anti-Christ spirits that hate the name of the Lord your God, and hate you, his people. Those who will not align themselves with the world church organization and with world religions, yes, I say unto you, they will know the bitterness of mockery and rejection and scoffing and lies. And they will know stonings—says the Lord. They will know it as they have never known it. Yes, there will be persecutions.

Yes, I say to you, this honor that the world has given you will be removed. The world will not honor you any more, my Christian children, but you will know the suffering that comes with the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. There will be a sifting, and there will be a shaking, and many will fall away—says the Lord. A remnant will be left who will know the glory of God and the power of God, but to this remnant I will give revival. It will be a revival in the midst of persecution, a revival in the midst of rejection, a revival in the midst of suffering and dying for me. There will be a pure revival—says the Lord. I am sick and tired of your man-made revivals, and I will have myself a holy revival, a pure and unadulterated revival wherein I can walk among my living stones of fire as the Lord God of the Glory. Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah!

Baby Preachers

And you will no more ask who is preaching, for I, the preacher, will preach through babes and through children. Yes, and if you reject the vessel that I send, if you reject the instrument of revival, you will go into darkness. For I will use the unexpected. I will use the ones who have been prepared in the furnace of affliction, who have known how to yield their bodies to the fire. For it's those who know how to yield their bodies to the fire that will survive the burnings of Nebuchadnezzar's furnace. And they will come out with the glory of the Son of God upon them. All will know that God has an anointed remnant in this land.

Many Will Fall; Others Will Be Promoted

Oh, you say, what is the Lord saying? What is the Lord saying? The Lord is saying, I will yet do two great things in this nation. ① I will send judgment with much persecution, but I will also send out of the judgment a pure, clean, holy revival. ② I will send a visitation, and I will walk among the candles of my church—says the Lord. I will purify and I will cleanse. Some are too late—they will be utterly moved aside, and they will be taken from their place. Some have lost their first love, but they will be revived—says the Lord. Others will know the glory of God even at the very place where Satan is seated.

For I am with you—says the Lord—to show myself to my people. Yes, I have given you a double space of grace. What have you done with it, my children? From now on, prepare; yes, prepare. I say to you, this will be a time of much testing, but do not look at those who will fall. So many will fall at your side, and yes, ten thousand at your right hand. But if you walk with me and talk with me and live a holy, humble life, it will not come near you, but only with your eyes you will behold and see the reward of the wicked. I say to you, it is not enough to preach my holiness. The hour has come when you must live my holiness. You must walk in my purity—says the Lord your God. Yes, and as Ezra saw the situation and the condition, and he saw the intermarriage of the children of the Lord—even in that short time, that short space of grace—he saw there had been transgression. Even under the difficult circumstances, they had played with my truth and played with my laws and defied them—says the Lord. They had married themselves to the ungodly and the pagans 'round about. And the Lord says, this Church of America has wedded itself to whoredoms. You have played with fornication and you have not walked in holiness. In fact, you have mocked those who have preached it.

A Call for Cleansing

The Lord called. Yes, I the Lord your God, called for a cleansing and a separation among the house [temple] of Jerusalem, and once more I call for a cleansing in my house. I call for separation. Come out of her, my people! Come out of her, my people! Yes, if any man love the world and the things of this earth, the love of the father is not in him. Therefore, I call you to come and build yourself an altar at my bloody cross. Yes, come and kneel at my feet. Let my blood drops flow all over you. Receive a fresh cleansing, Church of Christ in America. You will not make it without the cleansing of the temple. Yes, your temple must be cleansed. Yes, it must be cleansed, my children. And only my blood and my word can cleanse you now.

The Narrow Way

Yes, hear the Word of the Lord your God. As you lie down, as you rise up, as you walk in your task and your duties, hear the word of the Spirit. For the Holy Ghost will begin to talk to you as He never has before. But you must shut out the other sounds, even the sounds that are not sinful sounds. Even the sounds that are proper and acceptable, but they will hinder you—says the Lord—from hearing the sound of the Voice of the Lord. It will become a very narrow road. I say to you, I have grieved and mourned as I have seen my children in this nation walk a pathway that has become broader and broader until it has become like your great highways, yes, of many, many lanes, and you have widened your roads, and widened your roads. But the Lord says, I am bringing it down to a narrow pathway, and things you could do last year, you will not be able to do this year. And things you are doing today, you will not be able to do next year at this time, for I am going to teach my people holiness. You will not learn it from the pulpits, but you will learn it from the Holy Spirit who dwells within you. Yes, I have come with a scourge to your temple. I have come to clean you out. I have come to set you free. I have come to do a new work within you.

And you will see my glory. I am Jesus of Nazareth. I stand among you. I speak through my handmaidens and I speak through my servants. For these are the last days when I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh and your sons and your daughters will prophesy, and upon my handmaidens in those days will I pour out my Spirit and they will prophesy!

Receive Your Anointing

Handmaidens of the Lord, arise and receive again the anointing that was denied you by the money-changers! Yes, receive it, handmaidens of the Lord. I have called many of you to prophesy, but you have been pushed in the corner, and your mouth has been sealed, and the fear of man has brought a snare upon you. But I want you to stand and prophesy my word in the houses of God. If they will not have you, stand on the door steps and prophesy. Stand as the people come in and stand as they go out, and you will soon know what persecution is in this land. You will know you are not free as you thought you were. Yes, you are free when you do everything that is popular, when you do everything that is acceptable to man. But when you do what I command you to do, then you will know the bondages that are in the Church.

Who told you—where did you read in my word that in order to speak forth my word, you must first write it down and let the elders of the church accept it? I say unto you, if I could, I would have given the word to my elders. But they could not receive it. So how will they accept what I give through you?

Yet you will go from this place with a new fire, with a new zeal, for my spirit is touching you this day. I say unto you, you will taste the bitterness of persecution. Prepare your hearts to be rejected. For I say unto you, never has a revival been accepted. It has been hounded! It has been persecuted! It has been hated by the enemy of revival! But I told you this day, that in the very presence of the Prince of Persia you will build the wall! Hallelujah!

Oh, I will not remove the Prince of Persia, for he has a legal right to be in this world until I bind him and put him in the pit. But in spite of his presence, you will build my wall. It will be joined from house to house, from servant to servant, and my house will also be built, not of man's mortar and stones, but of God's living stones. You are that house that I am building, if you do not rebel against my word. And if my word abides in you, I will place you into your position in the eternal tabernacle of God that will come down and dwell with men. There will be no need of light, for the Lord, the Lamb of God, is its light. As he fills you, you will all become vessels of light. His glory will be seen upon you, in you, through you, and it will reach out to the nations of the world, for the nations of the world sit in darkness. I say I will not save with a nation anymore, but I will save through my people, through my anointed vessels. The day has come—says the Lord—for the glory of the Lord to cover the earth, even as the waters cover the sea.

Come to my glory! Come and be filled with my glory! Come and receive of my glory, and take that glory with you as you go back into the darkness. Oh, you will be light in comparison to the darkness, that as the darkness increases, the light of God will increase within you. For as sin abounds, grace abounds that much more. And my grace will abound upon you, in you, and through you. And you will know my glory, you will know my blessings—says the Lord. For the day has come, yes it is now here. It is not tomorrow, it is now—says the Lord.

Jane Leade of England prophesied in 1679 that in later times God would raise up a very strong, victorious, highly anointed church that would do much greater works than the world has ever seen. She said that she did not see any such church in her day, but that all declarations of faith in her day were found light when weighed in the balances.

I recommend that this prophecy be read only by those who have read the whole Bible and studied it carefully. May God's virtue be upon every reader of this prophecy, to reveal the truth of these matters.

The 1679<sup>2</sup> PROPHECY:

There will be a total and full redemption by Jesus Christ. This is a mystery revealed by the Holy Spirit only to those holy seekers who lovingly search for truth.

The seals in the book of Revelation represent the completion of this redemption, but the fulfillment is being held back at the present time (1679). As God's Spirit opens up seal after seal [to those truth-loving holy seekers], this complete and total redemption will be revealed both individually and universally. This gradual opening of the mysteries of Christ's redemption constitutes God's unfathomable wisdom, and will continually reveal new and fresh things to the deserving seeker.

The reason for the opening of the testimony in heaven before the end of this age is so that the ark of the living testimony it contains may be unsealed. (Revelation 11:19) The presence of the divine ark will constitute the life of the virgin church, and wherever this [church-] body is, the ark must be there also. The spreading of the everlasting gospel of the kingdom will begin with the unsealing of the living testimony in God's ark. The proclamations from this testimony will be [compared to] the sounding of a trumpet of alarm to the nations [and/or denominations] of Christendom. Christ will give authority [to his own] to end all controversies concerning [which is] the true church that is born from the New Jerusalem mother. This decision [and action] will be the actual sealing of Christ's [church-] body with God's name [and nature, and authority]—commissioning her to act in that name.

This new name [or nature, or authority] will distinguish her from the seven thousand names of Babylon. The selection and preparation of the virgin church is to be after a secret or hidden manner. As David <sup>2</sup> Several publishers of this prophecy dated it in 1619. Because it was hand-copied, some copyists mistook the seven for one. Jane Leade lived from 1623 to 1724.

This prophecy was written in old English and was full of symbolic language, making it somewhat difficult to read. This edition has been simplified and modernized. In some passages, explanations have been inserted in parenthesis or brackets.

was chosen and anointed by the Lord's prophet, but was not admitted to public service in the kingdom for quite a few years; so also the virgin church which has no human origins (and who is also from the stem of David), will be born. It will take her some time to come out of immaturity and arrive at full and mature age.

The birth of this virgin church was typified by Saint John's vision in which he saw a great wonder appeared in heaven: a woman giving birth to her first-born son who was caught up to God's throne [or God's authority]. For as a virgin gave birth to Christ physically, so shall a virgin church give birth to the first-born in the Spirit—one who will be endowed with the seven spirits of God [Isaiah 11:2]. Being so born and marked with divine authority, this church will not know any hindrances or impediments. The holy anointing [or unction] among these new-born spirits will be complete!

There is not such a church apparent in the earth at this time (1679). All declarations of faith are found light when weighed in the balances, and are therefore rejected by the Supreme Judge. However, the outcome of this rejection will be that a new and glorious church will arise. The glory of God and of the Lamb will so rest on this church (which is typified by the tabernacle in the wilderness), that it will be called the Tabernacle of Wisdom. While not now visible, it will be seen coming (as out of the wilderness) within a short time. It will then grow and spread throughout the earth, not only to the number of the first born (the 144,000), but also to the [full number of the] remnant of the seed—against whom the dragon will make war continually.

Consequently, the spirit of David will revive in this blossoming root [this root out of which the true church will blossom]. These will have might [strength, enablement] given them to overcome the dragon and his angels, even as David overcame Goliath and the Philistine army. This will be the standing up of the great prince Michael and will be as the appearance of Moses against Pharaoh—in order that the chosen seed [the ones God chose to be his children] may be brought out of hard labor.

Egypt symbolizes this slavery under which Abraham's descendants groan, but the Most High will raise up a prophet—and a most prophetic generation—who will deliver his people by the use of spiritual weapons. For this [deliverance], certain people will be needed to take the leadership, the chief offices or positions. These people will have such favor with God, and the mighty acts of the Holy Spirit will so rest on them, that their dread and fear will fall on all nations [visible and invisible]. Christ will appear in those chosen vessels to lead his new creation into the promised land.

Thus Moses, Joshua, and Aaron may be considered types of those upon whom the same Spirit will come, but even in greater measure. These [individuals] will make a way for the ransomed of the Lord to return to Mt. Zion. Nobody will stand there before God except those who are tried stones (Isaiah 28:16) according to the pattern and likeness of Christ. This will be a fiery trial through which very few will be able to pass or bear up. For this reason, those who wait [longingly] for this visible breaking out [of God's greater works] are strictly charged to hold fast, and wait together in the unity of pure love. This trial will be of absolute necessity for everyone for the clearing away of all remaining weaknesses of the natural mind, and to burn up all hay, wood, and straw. As all things are purified by fire, so the Lord, like a refiner, will purify the sons of the kingdom.

Some will be clothed with the priestly robe of the Melchizedek order. [Only] when they are fully redeemed, will they be qualified for governing authority. They will be required to suffer the spirit of burning, and the fanning of the fiery breath [which will] search every [motive] in them. When their bodies are totally disciplined, [God's] wonders will flow out of them.

The Urim and Thummim will be assigned to this body [of believers] which is in the succession of the Melchizedek priesthood. Their descent is not counted in the genealogy of the fallen creation, but in the genealogy of the new creation. Accordingly, these priests will be able to search deep within, and they will have divine insight into things not yet revealed. They will know each person's originality [or primary motivation] in the eternal anti-type of nature [that which in eternity corresponds to the person's nature]. Consequently, they will be able to prophesy clearly, not darkly or enigmatically, and will be able to bring their hearers forward according to divine counsel and ordination.

The Lord swears with truth and righteousness that from Abraham's line, according to the spirit, there will arise a holy priesthood. Abraham and Sarah were a type of those who will be produced and manifested at the [end of this] age. The mighty spirit of Cyrus is appointed to lay the foundation of this third temple and support it during the construction.

There are characteristics and marks whereby the pure virgin church will be known and distinguished from all others and whereby the unction and true voice of the Holy Spirit will be discerned [distinguished] from the ones who are base, false, and counterfeit. The manifestation of the spirit will be such that this church will be raised up and edified. These will then bring heaven down upon the earth and present the New Jerusalem order—all this so that spirits might be conceived and born of God, and ascend to New Jerusalem above, where their head reigns in majesty!

None but those who have so ascended and received of His glory can condescend and communicate this message. This will make them God's representatives and sub-priests in the earth. The one who ascended and has been glorified, has made himself, as it were, our debtor. Consequently, he is qualified to bring forth certain exalted principal [human] instruments who will be as humble and little regarded as David was [before his anointing or coronation]. These he will dignify with honor and priestly sovereignty for [the purpose of] gathering the scattered flock from all nations.

There should be a holy emulation and ambition stirred up among the bands of believers, to be of the first-fruits to the one who has been raised from the dead. [For this purpose] he ordained that [certain individuals should be] his principal agents with him, and that they may be, if possible, of the number of the first-born, of the New Jerusalem mother. Everyone who is truly waiting for the spiritual kingdom, regardless of which denominational or religious group he may be affiliated with, should be numbered among the virgin spirits to whom this message pertains.

Be watchful and quicken your pace.

Is The 3rd World War Going to be the same as The Great Tribulation Spoken of By Jesus?

Many times the thought came to me that the 3rd World War would be the same as the Great Tribulation spoken of by Jesus; but of course, I did not have any hard evidence or proof. However, the following seems to be very strong evidence that the Great Tribulation spoken of by Jesus will be called The Third World War by the news media and the historians.

Below is a vision that a 90-year-old woman in Norway had in 1968. At that time, she foretold or prophesied that many perversions would come into the church world before the Third World War. A Christian minister visited her and found her to be very alert, reliable, aware, and credible—of good reputation from all who knew her. He recorded her vision; however, he considered that the perversions she described were so incredible, that he refused to publish them.

However, after 30 years, gross perversions had come into many churches, and the minister remembered the prophetic warnings that this elderly lady had proclaimed. Looking through his files, he found her message. He realized that this vision was truly a message from God, and he should published it. This minister's name is Dr. Emmanuel Minos (a well-known conference speaker in Norway). The name of the 90-year-old lady is not given, but the name of her hometown was given as: Valdres.

I am presenting this for your spiritual discernment according to the passage where the Apostle Paul told us to judge prophecy. (1st Corinthians 14:29). Please read and discern for yourselves. Here is the message that was shown to the 90-year-lady and recorded by Dr. Minos:

I saw, just before the return of our Lord, a Third World War. I saw these events with my natural eyes. The world appeared [in my vision] as a globe— Scandinavia, Europe and also many nations. Then I observed certain events which would happen before a terrible catastrophe. There were four special signs:

1 Prior to the world-wide conflict and the coming of the Lord, there will be a time of peace—detente—as never experienced previously, between the powerful nations from the East and the West. In many countries there will be a disarmament program resulting in their being completely unprepared for this crisis, which will happen in a most unexpected way, and from an unexpected place. (She said this in 1968 was before the collapse of Communism and the end of the Cold War.)

2 In the churches compromise, lukewarmness, and apathy would prevail, and a falling away from vibrant, living Christianity. The Christians will not want to listen to messages that penetrate their comfort zone—no messages about sin, repentance, law, grace, and holy living. Rather, there will be a substitute prosperity gospel. The main emphasis will be on making an impression and being successful. Materialism will dominate. Churches and prayer rooms will become empty and be sold for other purposes. Instead of proclaiming the message of the cross, following Jesus, and true worship, there will be entertainment and cultural experience. This will definitely increase before the time of the great tribulation and the return of Jesus.

3 There will be a moral collapse such as we have never known before in Norway. Couples will live together without being married. (Mr. Minos said that he did not know if there were any such couples in 1968) People will be living in immorality and adultery. There will be uncleanness before marriage and unfaithfulness between husbands and wives. Such actions will be considered normal and many excuses will be made. There will be sinful relationships between men and women. Christian families will be affected, and even allow such things to happen. In the times before His coming there will be an enormous increase of television stations and channels offering programs with an explosion of violence which will result in an escalation of crime, such that people will not feel safe to walk on the streets. It will be the same way with the radio stations. People will view and listen to scenes of death and destruction, evil and wickedness which will influence society. And this will be considered entertaining and exciting! Even sex scenes will be shown on the screen—the most intimate things that take place in a marriage.

Dr. Minos added: I protested, but the dear old lady said to me.

“This will really happen and you will see it . The good will be removed and the evil will be regarded as quite normal.”

4 From the underdeveloped countries people will pour into Europe and they will come to Scandinavia and also to Norway. There will be such an influx that eventually our people will disdain and treat them like the Jews were in Hitler’s time. (Dr. Minos said there were no immigrants in Norway at that time.) Then the full measure of our sins will be reached, followed by the Third World War and the coming of the Lord Jesus. And Dr. Minos said that tears streamed from the old woman’s eyes down her cheeks. She said, “I will not see it, but you will. Then suddenly, Jesus will come and the Third World War breaks out. It will be a short war.” (She saw it in the vision.)”

[Editor: In this passage, the 90-year-old writer connected the 3rd World War and the coming of the Lord Jesus—exactly as Jesus connected the Great Tribulation and his coming in the 24th chapter of Matthew, verses 29-31:

Immediately after the tribulation of those days.....then the sign of the Son of man will appear in heaven, and they will see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he will send his angels....and they shall gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

If the first 3 signs that this lady gave turned out to be correct, isn’t that strong evidence that the 4th would probably be correct? Continuing this lady’s message:

The actual conflict [Third World War] will not last long. There will be no comparison with this final battle! The air will be so unclean that the people will not be able to breathe properly. This will spread to the continents of America, Asia and Australia and especially the richer countries. Water will be considered unsafe to drink. The earth will not provide the usual harvests. Consequently only a few will survive and people will try to move to the poorer countries, but they will also be treated in a very harsh manner.

Now I am glad that I shall not experience what I have seen in the future, but when this time approaches, you must have courage to declare this vision which God has given to me. Nothing must be contrary to the Bible. The people who know the forgiveness of their sins and that Jesus is Lord and Savior will be protected and saved!

Translated from an article in a German magazine:

Christian Information Service

A Comment: Because of the many conflicts in Eastern Europe and the relaxation of border controls in the European Union, there has been in the past few years a massive influx of refugees into the richer countries of Europe. Traditionally “Christian” Europe now has 26 million Muslims.

The Good News:

Since Jesus told us that his return will be immediately after The Great Tribulation, shouldn't we be looking forward to the time of Great Tribulation—knowing that our Lord's return will be follow immediately.

A reminder of our Lord's words:

When these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads: for the time of your redemption is drawing near.

A prophetic word through brother J.L. Horton:

Copied from End-Time Handmaidens, Inc.,

While I was lying down overwhelmed by God's power, the Holy Spirit carried me away into the heavenlies from where I saw many young people rising up all over the earth. Every color and ethnic group were represented in this army that marched across the earth proclaiming Jesus.

Then confusion arose among them as they heard a second ‘word’ as parents (they too were filled with the Holy Spirit and all of them were a part of the baby-boomer generation) cried out, “This is not the way to go! This defies logic and reason and makes us look bad in the eyes of our churches and friends.”

Jesus turned to me and said, “These are the sons and daughters of the generation that will not pass away until all things are fulfilled. I did not call them to be logical or acceptable, but to reach nations that nobody else is reaching. And I am calling parents to lay their sons and daughters upon the altar, even as Abraham did Isaac. Let the young ones go to the places of danger and do the things that are despised by the world. Many of the parents of those I've called to suffer and to difficult job assignments must settle this issue now, or I will put strife between them and their children—so that their opinions will not be a stumbling block to their children. For this gospel of the kingdom must be preached in all nations—then the end will come.” I saw young people going into the regions populated by aborigines and other backward peoples. Many primitive peoples in remote areas of the world experienced this awakening. Jesus said, “I have chosen the fatherless generation to reach those who have never known me as father. Many that society has passed by and forgotten, will not be passed by nor forgotten by me. Many of the greatest world-wide evangelists will be those I raised up from among those peoples.” I saw Aborigines and numerous “odd-looking” people groups raised up and sent into all the earth.

The following is a prophetic word concerning children who are being raised up to minister in a powerful anointing even while they are still young. The prophetess said:

CHILD CHAMPIONS OF PRAYER AND FAITH WILL ARISE

The child-prayer movement has not been strong enough to be released fully into the public domain until now, but in the next 12-24 months I [says the Lord] am going to cause child-champions of prayer and faith to rise up in their generation, and their words will be powerful and prophetically anointed.

They will need to be mentored in like manner as Eli mentored

Samuel, in order that they can be trained to discern my voice for themselves and respond to me in obedience, for it is my desire that none of their words fall to the ground. There is a need for this generation to be nurtured and disciplined. They are a hungry generation.

I am teaching children how to develop a personal relationship with me, and giving them an understanding of the need for quality time alone with me as well as time together with other children. I have placed an “all or nothing” desire in the hearts of these children. They cannot and will not settle for any kind of compromised Gospel message. They are hungry for spiritual truth. [1st Samuel 12:23]

The Samuel generation will posture themselves before the Lord in intercessory prayer for the nations. I have convened micro-level meetings across many nations, where handfuls of children have gathered to seek my face. I am releasing a fresh mantle upon the children of the nations to gather and for the power [dunamis] of my Holy Spirit to move powerfully upon them and through them. I will shake gatherings as I did in the first days of my church (Acts 2:3) as the prayers of thousands of children are lifted to my throne.

As the children call out for my mighty hand to move, I will hear and I will answer. The children will pray in simple words, but they will not lack radical or extreme love. The prayers of my children are relevant and cutting edge. I am raising up an army of 24-7 children who will have their hearts right before me. These children are sold out in intimacy for me and are prepared to die for love of God. They are martyrs of my mercy. Many children from persecuted nations will give their lives for my namesake, and will remain faithful to the end (Acts 7:59,60). For I will raise up a faithful generation for myself from amongst the children of the nations. They are a missionary generation with a vision for revival, to love their Lord, to love the lost, and to love the church. I am restoring the priesthood to be a worshipping, interceding, prophetic evangelistic people. The Samuel generation represent such a people and includes many children. The Samuel generation will be the church that acts! The Samuel generation is the paradigm. Radical holiness, purity, devotion, and availability are required from this generation. They are called out, set apart, and sanctified for me and by me.

I am rising up a Nazarite generation of little children whose posture before me will be to place their relationship with me as a priority. They will confront corruption in the purity of chastity. I will not treat their offerings to me with contempt, because they are offered from pure hearts. [1st Sam.2:35]

The Samuel generation will be a voice to the nations and a voice to the church, calling the lost into the kingdom and calling believers to devotion to Christ. They will speak forth revelation to the church about the kingship of Christ. This end-time generation of children will be prophetically accurate, and what they prophesy will come to pass. [See: 1st Sam. 7:3; 9:6; 3:19]

This generation of boys and girls will know the fear of the Lord, and they will know my favor and will be held in esteem by both God and men. The children will help to usher in my kingly anointing. The Samuel generation heralds a new season, whereby spiritual barrenness is broken and new birth will come forth in my church. For those who have labored in prayer as Hannah, and have loved in like manner to Hannah and Elkanah [the Lord says], the sorrow of your travail will now bear much abundant and beautiful fruit.

The birthing of the Samuel generation represents an increase in apostolic/prophetic authority in the church and speaks of a people willing to lovingly submit to Christ's governmental authority. This Samuel generation will have an impeccable character and be honest and virtuous and will be a testimony to God's righteousness (1st Samuel 12).

The Samuel generation will know an increase in anointing and will pour themselves out for love of others. Anointing will pour forth from the children just as it did from the horn of oil with which Samuel anointed King Saul and King David. Amen. [see also: 1st Samuel 2:26 and chapters 10&16]

Catherine Brown added this:

The Lord has been gathering an underground network of praying children and young people. They are not currently meeting in huge numbers. That's because if "we" (the church) "got our hands on it" too early, "we" would inadvertently mess it up!

In 2003, a Jewish prophet named David Michael wrote:

On Friday, June 20th, 2003, the Lord Jesus said to me, "I've reached My decision." He revealed to me [while I was] in the Spirit, that He was speaking of authorizing the LAUNCHING FORWARD and rapid acceleration of the things which will re-position the world structure, ...nations, and the whole human society in line with the approaching return of the King of Kings. He caused me to understand that some aspects of such an authorization had weighed heavily on Him, and He had delayed some factors (over reasons He didn't describe), but now He had wholeheartedly DETERMINED to plunge forward, and He is at peace with His decision, because it really is time to rapidly move forward.

David Michael continues: What I immediately discerned is that the whole world is going to see visible indications of His decision! We can never, never go back. So saints, look both for events and many processes which will combine to alter the world's current operational functions. A single event cannot compete with a process. This world-changing process, namely, the events in our day....will culminate in His return. O Glorious prospect, O blessed hope! We see the Lord's return on the horizon.

The Five Angels of the Continents

Message given by Dr. Samuel Doctorian, 16th August 1998 on the Isle of Patmos, Greece.

I was here alone in a house on the Isle of Patmos for several weeks to pray and seek the Lord. I found a little chapel – St. Nicolas' Chapel – where no one ever goes. I went there and poured out my heart before God. I found a rock on the side of a hill where I would go to sit and pray – meditation and reading the Bible. I ate very little during those days. Several times I went to the cave of John where he saw the great Revelation.

While meditating for one month in this solitary place, I thought, "I wonder if the Lord will ever send a tenth angel?" I'd seen angels nine times before – in:

England	Yugoslavia	Jerusalem
Belgrade	Amman, Jordan	Beirut in the midst of war

And in Egypt, I saw an angel that delivered a woman from being hanged. The angel physically awakened me at 3:00 in the morning and told me to get out of the country immediately. To this day I am grateful to the Lord. I don't know what might have happened to me if the angel had not come. Heaven will tell that one day. So I wondered whether I would see an angel for the tenth time. There were times when I was praying when I felt such a presence that I asked, "Lord, I wonder if an angel is coming now?" But it was not so. One night I even dreamt about an angel. He told me to fly in my dream and I did – but that was only a dream. I wanted to see a real angel, as I had seen nine times before.

On June 20 at 3:50am, here in Patmos suddenly my room was full of light, and there are no lights around here. It is a house all by itself at the end of the road near a monastery. Lo and behold, when I was wide awake, I saw five beautiful angels. I saw their faces – perfect and human-like, but full of light. I saw their eyes, their hair, their hands.

On my right side were two angels, and when I looked to the left I saw three other angels with wings. They had beautiful white robes falling to the floor – something I can't describe with human words. I wondered why five angels had come, but I was trembling and shaking. I wanted to cry, but I could not.

Just before I saw these angels in the Spirit, I had seen myself in a great meeting of multitudes, and I was preaching in English. An interpreter was on my left with dark hair and a grey suit, but I can't remember what language he was speaking. I was prophesying this message: “My church, you preach love, you teach love, but you need to practice love – to show love. There is a need of unity in my body. There are many divisions among you. My spirit will not move and work where there is no unity. There is carnality in my church; too much uncleanness in my church. I desire and I want a holy people. I died to make you holy.”

While I was prophesying in the spirit I was trembling. My eyes opened and I was looking at the great multitude. And suddenly, in the midst of the prophecy, these mighty angels appeared. I went back from the pulpit and thought I was going to fall down. I am now wide-awake, but this is all happening in the spirit. Some power helped me not to fall down and I wondered what was happening.

Then suddenly the first angel on my right side said, “We are five angels from the five continents. We are here to give you messages from the five continents of the world.” The moment I heard that, I also heard the multitude crying out, “Ohhh, Ohhh, Ohhh,” I believe that the multitude saw the angels also. Somehow the Lord showed me that in the days to come, in many parts of the world, God is going to reveal Himself through ministering angels. It's going to happen publicly; it's going to happen in churches – thousands of people seeing angels at the same time. They will be ministering to the Body in these last days. Then came this message from the angels: “What you see and hear, tell it to the nations.” So it's not something for me to keep to myself. Whether they accept it or don't accept it, I have to tell it to the nations.

FIRST ANGEL: Asia

The first angel said: “I have a message for all of Asia.” When he said that, in a split few seconds, I could see all of China, India, the Asian countries like Vietnam, Laos – I've never been to those countries. I saw the Philippines, Japan, Singapore, Malaysia and Indonesia. And then the angel showed me all of Papua, New Guinea, Irian Jaya and down to Australia and New Zealand.

“I am the angel of Asia,” he said. And in his hand I saw a tremendous trumpet that he is going to blow all over Asia. Whatever the angel said, it's going to happen with the trumpet of the Lord all over Asia. Millions are going to hear the mighty voice of the Lord. Then the angel said, “There shall be disaster, starvation – many will die from hunger. Strong winds such as have never happened before. A great part shall be shaken and destroyed. Earthquakes will take place all over Asia and the sea will cover the earth.

A few weeks later I heard the news of villages completely wiped out and washed into the sea in Papua, New Guinea. Thousand of lives in great jeopardy. That happened a few weeks ago, but the angel told me it is going to happen all over Asia. “The earth will fall into the sea,” I heard the angel say, “Part of Australia will be shaken. Australia will be divided, and a great part will go under the ocean.” This was frightening – I wondered whether I was hearing right. But the angel said, “Millions will die in China and in India. Nation will be against nation, brother against brother. Asians will fight each other. Nuclear weapons shall be used, killing millions.” Twice I heard the words, “Catastrophic! Catastrophic!” then the angel said, “Financial crisis will come to Asia. I will shake the world.”

I was trembling while the angel was speaking. Then he looked at me and smiled and said, “There shall be the greatest spiritual awakening – bondages will be broken. Barriers will be removed. And all over Asia – China – India – people will turn to Christ. In Australia there shall be tremendous revival.” I heard the angel of Asia say, “It is the last harvest.” Then as if the Lord were speaking, he said, “I shall prepare My church for the return of Christ.” I was happy with such good news after the message of judgment. All the time the five angels were in my room I could feel their presence – it was tremendous.

I also heard that the big river in China is in tremendous danger of thousands of houses being destroyed in flooding.

SECOND ANGEL: The Middle East

Then I saw that the second angel had a sickle in his hand, such as is used in harvesting. The second angel said, “Harvest time has come in Israel and the countries all the way to Iran.” I saw those countries in a few split seconds. “All of Turkey and those [_____ see footnote<sup>3</sup>] countries that have refused me and refused my message of love shall hate each other and kill one another.” I saw the angel raise the sickle<sup>4</sup> and come down on all the Middle East countries.

I saw Iran, Persia, Armenia, Azerbaijan, all of Georgia – Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, Jordan, Israel, all of Asia Minor – full of blood. I saw blood all over these countries. And I saw fire; nuclear weapons were used in many of those countries. Smoke rising from everywhere. Sudden destruction – men destroying one another.

I heard these words, “Israel, Oh Israel, the great judgment has come.” The angel said, “The chosen, the church, the remnant, shall be purified. The Spirit of God shall prepare the children of God.” I saw fires rising to heaven. The angel said, “This is the final judgment. My church shall be purified, protected and ready for the final day. Men will die from thirst. Water shall be scarce all over the Middle East. Rivers shall dry up, and men will fight for water in those countries.” The angel showed me that the United Nations shall be broken in pieces because of the crisis in the Middle East. There shall be no more United Nations. The angel with the sickle shall reap the harvest.

THIRD ANGEL: Europe

Then one of the angels with wings showed me Europe from one end to the other – from the north all the way down to Spain and Portugal. In his hand he had a scale of measurement. I saw him fly over Europe and I heard the words, “I am grieved. I am grieved. Unrighteousness, uncleanness, ungodliness – all over Europe. The sin has risen to heaven. The Holy Spirit is grieved.” I saw the rivers of Europe flooding and covering millions of houses. Millions drown. Just a few weeks after seeing this, I read in the news that Czechoslovakia had the worst flooding ever. I did not know this before I saw the vision and heard what the angels told me.

<sup>3</sup>This message was transcribed from an audio tape. At this point, there was an inaudible or indistinguishable word on the tape.

<sup>4</sup>It is interesting that the angel used this word: sickle. The Muslims use the sickle as one of their symbols.

Suddenly I heard of earthquakes all over Europe. “Countries that have had no earthquakes shall be shaken,” said the angel. And suddenly, in my spirit, I saw the Eiffel Tower in Paris crumbling, falling down. A great part of Germany was destroyed. The great city of London – destruction everywhere. I saw floods all over Scandinavia. I looked to the south and saw Spain and Portugal passing through hunger and great destruction.

Many will die from hunger all over Spain and Portugal. I was disturbed by all this news, and I said, “Lord, what about your children?”

The angel said, “I shall prepare them. They shall be looking for the appearing of the Lord. Many will cry to me in those days and I will save them. I shall perform mighty miracles for them and show them My power.”

So in the midst of great destruction, there will be the grace of God in those countries. I was happy that God has His protection over His children.

FOURTH ANGEL: Africa

Now we go to Africa. I saw the fourth angel with wings fly over Africa, and I could see from Capetown in the south all the way to the north of Cairo – I saw all the countries there, more than fifty of them. The angel of Africa had a sword in his hand – a tremendous, sharp sword. Suddenly I heard him say, “Innocent blood has been shed. Divisions among the people, generations far from the Lord – they have killed one another, thousands of people. I have seen my faithful children in Africa, and I shall reward all the faithful in the continent of Africa. I shall bless them abundantly.

I shall control the weather – scorching and burning of the sun in some parts. Great rivers shall dry up, and millions will die from starvation. In other parts, flooding. Foundations shall be shaken. My sword shall judge the unrighteous and the bloodthirsty. So many earthquakes shall happen that rivers shall flow in different directions in the continent, flooding many villages.”

I saw great objects falling from the sky over different parts of Africa. “There shall be trembling of the earth like has not been seen since the creation. None shall escape the sword of the Lord.” I saw the Nile River drying up. It is the god of Egypt. Fishes dead and stinking all over Egypt. A great part of the middle of Africa will be covered with water – millions dying.

“Lord,” I said, “It is all bad news. All destruction. Any good news?”

The Lord said, “The final day has come. Judgment day is here. My love has been refused now, and the end has come.”

I was shaking and trembling. I thought I cannot bear it.

FIFTH ANGEL: The Americas

Then I saw the last angel flying over North and South America – all the way from the North Pole down to Argentina. From the east of the U.S.A. to California. I saw in his hand a bowl. The angel said he would pour out over these countries the judgments that were in the bowl. Then I heard the angel say, “No justice anymore. No righteousness. No holiness. Idolatry. Materialism. Drunkenness. Bondage of sin. Shedding of innocent blood – millions of babies being killed before they are born. Families are broken. An adulterous generation. Sodom and Gomorrah is here. The days of Noah are here. False preachers. False prophets. Refusing of my love. Many of them have the imitation of religion, but denying the real power.

When I heard all that, I begged the angel, “Can you not wait for a little while? Don't pour it. Give a chance for repentance.” The angel said, “Many times God has spared and has spoken, but they have not listened. His patience has come to an end. Beware, the time has come. They have loved money and pleasure more than they have loved Me.” As the angel began to pour from the bowl in his hand, I saw tremendous icebergs melting. When that happened I saw floods all over Canada and North America – all the rivers flooded; destruction everywhere. I heard the world market collapsing with mighty earthquakes, and New York skyscrapers were tumbling – millions dying. [Samuel Doctorian saw this before the Twin Towers fell.]

I saw ships in the ocean sinking. I heard explosions all over the north country. I saw the angel pouring over Mexico and two oceans joining together—the Atlantic and the Pacific. A great part of northern Brazil covered with water, the Amazon River turning into a great sea. Forests destroyed and flooded. Major cities in Brazil destroyed; earthquakes in many places. As the angel poured [out his bowl of judgment], great destruction took place in Chile and Argentina as never before. The whole world was shaking. Then I heard the angel say, “This will happen in a very short time.”

I said, “Can't you postpone it? Don't pour these things out all over the globe.”

— end of the messages of the five angels —

And suddenly I saw the five angels standing around the globe lifting up their hands and their wings towards heaven and saying, “All glory to the Lord of heaven and earth. Now the time has come and He will glorify His Son. The earth shall be burned and destroyed. All things shall pass away. The new Heaven and New Earth shall come. God shall destroy the works of the devil forever. I shall show My power – how I will protect My children in the midst of all this destruction. Be ready for that day, for the Lord has come.”

My room was full of light from the brightness of the angels. Then suddenly the angels ascended up to heaven. As I looked up I saw the angels go in five directions. I know they already have started their duties, their assignments. For more than an hour I could not move. I was wide-awake, trembling from time to time.

I said, “Lord, shall I leave Patmos now?”

He said, “No, I brought you here for a purpose.”

I said, “The message from the angels all over the world is not good news. It is judgment, punishment, destruction, devastation. What will people say about me? I've always been a preacher of love, peace and good news.”

The answer came, “It is our message. You are the instrument, the channel. What a privilege that God has chosen you to give this message to the nations.”

I said, “Lord, Thy will be done.” To God be the glory!

The scripture tells us that “...and the end thereof shall be with a flood.” [Daniel 9:26] And another scripture reads: “But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of it's place, and darkness shall pursue his enemies. [Nahum 1:8]

This message was transcribed by Ruthanne Garlock from a tape received in Singapore on August 30th, 1998 from a native named Wee Tiong How. He had just returned from the Isle of Patmos where he attended a prayer retreat with a small group of Singaporeans, and where Samuel Doctorian related this experience to them.

Samuel Doctorian is a naturalized American citizen.

Following is a short biography of Samuel Doctorian

Samuel Doctorian is an Armenian. Like all other Armenian families, his family suffered in the massacres by the Turks in 1915. His father and mother were young children at this time, and they both lost both parents, barbarously slaughtered because they would not deny Christ. Samuel's parents escaped the massacre, and were later brought up in a Mission Orphanage.

Samuel was born in 1930 in the city of Beirut. When he was six years old, his parents moved to Jerusalem, where they lived until the war in 1948, when for the second time they lost everything and became refugees. When he was nine years old, Samuel became a committed Christian as he stood at the place where Jesus died. It was there he resolved that his whole life would be lived for Christ.

Coming from a poor family, at the age of fourteen, he could not continue his schooling, and began to work in a shoe-maker's shop. It was while working in the shop in Old Jerusalem that the Lord called him to the ministry - he was sixteen years old. A year later he began his theological studies at Hurler Nazarene College near Glasgow, in Scotland. After graduation, he was ordained in 1951. Later that year he returned to the Middle East and began his ministry in Jerusalem, later moving to Amman, Jordan. He was married in April, 1952 to Naomi Pashgian. Samuel and Naomi have five children and four grandchildren.

In the month of October 1952, Samuel Doctorian was called by the Lord to start evangelistic work throughout the Middle East - living by faith as he was not sponsored by any denomination. He was used by the Holy Spirit to bring Revival to Aleppo, Beirut, Cyprus and Damascus, and when he went to Egypt he had a revival ministry all over the land that brought tens of thousands to Christ. As a result of a vision, he began the Bible Land Mission in 1959. The Lord has used him in many countries all over the Middle East, Europe, North and South America and other parts of the world to bring a breath of revival. He has led people of all walks of life to the Lord, from Eastern refugees to a European princess. He has been to over 125 countries of the world in all seven Continents.

From Beirut and Jerusalem, Samuel Doctorian seeks to spread the Gospel over the Bible Lands by every possible means, and extend his revival ministry around the world. He has preached for every one of the larger Protestant denominations, and in many Catholic and Orthodox churches too. On two occasions he has preached to Members of Parliament in the House of Commons in London. He is undoubtedly a preacher anointed by the Holy Spirit, and as he preaches with such fervor and power there is always a ready response in his hearers to the Word of God. His messages are colored with vivid illustrations from his personal experiences in many parts of the world. In addition to the unction of the Holy Spirit, Samuel Doctorian exercises a ministry of healing that has brought positive help to many thousands.

His autobiography has sold by the thousands, in many languages around the world. Many people have expressed their appreciation of Samuel Doctorian's ministry. To God be the Glory!

Prophecies by Dumitru Duduman

Dumitru Duduman was a pastor in Romania during the days of Communist suppression of religion. Communist officials arrested Duduman for unauthorized preaching and put him in prison for several months. During his imprisonment, he was beaten unconscious. The following message was taken from his book which was entitled Through the Fire without Burning published 1992 — starting at page 159.

Late one night I could not sleep. My wife and daughter were crying. I went outside and walked around the building, crying and praying. I stopped in front of the apartment and sat on a large rock. Suddenly a bright light came toward me. I jumped to my feet because it looked as if a car was coming directly at me—attempting to run me down! I thought someone was trying to kill me. But it wasn't a car at all. As the light approached, it surrounded me. From the light, I heard the same voice that I had heard so many times in my country. He said, "Dumitru, I brought you to this country because this country will burn."

I said, "Then why did you bring me here to burn? Why didn't you let me die in my own country?"

He said, "Dumitru, have patience so I can tell you. Get on this." I got on something next to him. I don't know what it was. I also know that I was not asleep. It was not a dream. It was not a vision. I was awake just as I am now. He showed me all of California and said, "This is Sodom and Gomorrah! All of this, in one day it will burn! It's sin has reached the Holy One." Then he took me to Las Vegas. "This is Sodom and Gomorrah. In one day it will burn." Then he showed me the state of New York. "Do you know what this is?" he asked.

I said, "No."

He said, "This is New York. This is Sodom and Gomorrah! In one day it will burn."

Then he showed me all of Florida. "This is Florida," he said. "This is Sodom and Gomorrah! In one day it will burn."

Then he took me back home to the rock where we had begun. "All of this I have shown you—in one day it will burn!"

I said, "How will it burn?"

He said, "Remember what I am telling you, because you will go on television, on the radio and in churches. You must yell with a loud voice. Do not be afraid, because I will be with you."

I said, "How will I be able to go? Who knows me here in America? I don't know anybody here."

He said, "Don't worry. I will go before you. I will do a lot of healing in the American churches, and I will open the doors for you. But do not say anything else besides what I tell you. This country will burn!"

I said, "What will you do with the church?"

He said, "I want to save the church, but the churches have forsaken me."

I said, "How did they forsake you?"

He said, "The people praise themselves. The honor that the people are supposed to give to Jesus Christ, they take upon themselves. In the churches there are divorces. There is adultery in the churches. There are homosexuals in the churches. There is abortion in the churches, and all other sins that are possible. Because of the sin, I have left some of the churches. You must yell in a loud voice that they must put an end to their sinning. They must turn toward the Lord. The Lord never gets tired of forgiving. They must draw close to the Lord, and live a clean life. If they have sinned until now, they must put an end to it, and start a new life as the Bible tells them to live."

I said, "How will America burn? America is the most powerful country in this world."

He said, "Remember this, Dumitru. The Russian spies have discovered where the nuclear warehouses are in America. When the Americans think that there is peace and safety—from the middle of the country, some of the people will start fighting against the government. The government will be busy with internal problems. Then from the ocean, from Cuba, Nicaragua, Mexico,..." (He told me two other countries, but I don't remember which ones.) "...they will bomb the nuclear warehouses. When they explode, America will burn!"

"What will you do with the church of the Lord? How will you save the ones that will turn toward you?" I asked.

He said, “Tell them this: how I saved the three young men from the furnace of fire, and how I saved Daniel in the lions' den, is the same way I will save them.”

The angel of the Lord also told me, “I have blessed this country because of the Jewish people who are in this country. I have seven million Jews in this country, but they do not want to recognize the Lord. They didn't want to thank God for the blessings they received in this country. Israel doesn't want to recognize Jesus Christ. They put their faith in the Jewish people in America.

When America burns, the Lord will raise up China, Japan and other nations to go against the Russians. They will beat the Russians and push them all the way to the gates of Paris. Over there, they will make a treaty, and appoint the Russians as their leaders. They will then unite against Israel.

When Israel realizes she that does not have the strength of America behind her, she will be frightened. That's when she will turn to the Messiah for deliverance. That's when the Messiah will come! Then, the church will meet Jesus in the air, and He will bring them back with him to the Mount of Olives. At that time, the battle of Armageddon will be fought.

[The angel gave Duduman these references: Jeremiah 51:8-15; Revelation chapter 18, and Zechariah chapter 14, parts of which are printed at the end of this booklet.] The angel also added: “After his victory [at the battle of Armageddon], there will be one flock and one shepherd. There will be no need for light. The Lamb of God will be the Light. There will be no sickness, no tears, and no death. There will only be eternal joy and God will be the ruler. There will be only one language, only one song. There will be no need for a translator!”

I asked, “How will I know that this is for real—that it will really happen?”

“As a sign that I have spoken to you, tomorrow before you wake up, I will send someone to bring you a bed, and at noon I will send you a car and a bucket of honey. After which, I will send someone to pay your rent.”

Then the angel left. My prayer had been answered. The dream had been repeated in a more powerful way through a real live revelation. Now I awaited its confirmation.

That night I fell into a sound sleep, and true to the angel's word, someone knocked on my door before I woke up. “I've brought you a bed,” he said. “I dreamed last night that you had no bed to sleep on.”

With tears in my eyes, I thanked him. Before long, a family came to visit. The son looked at me kindly and said, “Brother Duduman, God told me last night in an dream that you need a car. We have two cars, and God said to give you one. I also brought you a bucket of honey—in His name!”

The next day, they brought over the car. It was over 15 years old, but it ran very well. He said, “I've been using it until now. I don't know when I'll get another one, but some Romanian Christians gave me this one. So I want to return the favor and give it to you.”

Well, the only thing left was the rent. How was God going to work that out? Over the years I had received countless Bibles from a man named Richard Wurmbandt, but I never knew where he lived. Now, God was about to meet another of my needs through this kind man. A Christian friend came to me and said, “Brother Duduman, come with me and meet Brother Wurmbandt. He'd love to see you and visit with you.” Of course I went with him. It was a great pleasure to visit Brother Wurmbandt's home. Together we shared stories of God's grace, and the wonders he had worked as Bibles were delivered to his people. When it came time to leave, we prayed. Then God put it on Brother Wurmbandt's heart to give me $500—the rent money that had been promised by the angel.

How wonderfully God worked that day! I thanked him with tears in eyes. After returning home, I gathered my family around. We knelt before the Lord, thanking Him for his goodness. We did this before I went to the apartment manager to pay my rent.

Following are the verses to which the angel directed Brother Duduman when he ask for confirmation from the Bible:

Jeremiah 51:8-15; Revelation 18, and Zechariah 14

Miscellaneous other passages from Duduman's prophesies:

When the people asked Duduman when all of these things would happen, he asked the Lord who sent an angel with this message:

“...with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. If they repent and turn back to God, they will make it to the 2000-year mark. If they do not, they will not make it to the

2000th year. (2 Peter 3:8)

August 10, 1991:

War with Saddam Hussein will restart.

Nuclear weapons will be used

Saddam will go against Israel [He did in 1991]

The United States will be involved.

November 29, 1996:

One night three men appeared before me as I lay in bed. One had a globe in his hand, and he began to rotate it and point out certain countries saying: "This is where the destruction will come from. I don't remember all the places he pointed to, but I remember I saw Mexico, Cuba, and the Alaskan border. Then one of the men spoke to me, "We fought against death for you. It was a hard fight. Do not fear; you will not leave. You still have work to do."

Suddenly, three stars appeared behind them. One of them asked: "Do you know what that means?"

"No," I answered.

"We won't say exactly, but it probably means that in another three years a great massacre will occur." Then the stars turned into blood, and everything disappeared.

The following are the last 3 prophetic messages given to Dumitru Duduman in 1997 before he passed on from this life.

Message One: The Lawless One 1997

I have spoken to you as a father speaks to his own children. I have shown you what will be that you may prepare your hearts and strengthen your spirits for the day of battle. Dark days are soon coming upon the earth. Days of mourning and great sadness. I tarry for those that seek me with a pure heart. I give strength to those who seek me continually. The lawless one has been prepared and he is ready to reveal himself. He awaits his release. He will come with a lying tongue and deceiving words. I will protect My own and I will deliver them even out of the clutches of the enemy. Those that will be strong until the end, those that will be called to be living testimonies for my name's sake will receive the crown of life. Let righteousness be your banner and My word be your guide. Be rooted in the truth. As the dawn comes to chase away the night, so will the darkness rule only for its allotted time. Be strong in the knowledge that I protect and watch over all who are Mine. Amen.

Second message: Fight The Good Fight! APRIL 1997

I heard a powerful voice which drowned out everything else. "Stop!" Even if I had wanted to continue walking I could not. It was as if I was paralyzed. "Tell my people, that their worship toward Me must be not out of fear, but out of love. Of what use will it be to them if I would tell them when the final hour will strike? What they must do is worship wholeheartedly. I have already sent them a guide. They have My Word. In My Word it has already been revealed that I will come as a thief in the night. Tell them that concern over tomorrow should not be found in them. They must be faithful and fight the good fight. Love me as I have loved them, living in love. Behold destruction is fast approaching, but I will not hesitate to be protector for my chosen. Those that sow mercy shall receive mercy from Me. Tell my people not to worry about the seasons, but meditate on how they will stand before Me. Urge them to prepare for the day when I will show my power. Look!"

When I turned, I saw a small child that was trying to climb the stairs. He tried, but because he was too small he could never make it to the next step. His laughter however echoed throughout like a bell. Even though he kept falling, he showed no sign of sadness, but just kept trying. "Did I not leave you this parable as an example?" Then everything disappeared.

Third message: THE BEAR AWAKES APRIL 1997

I knelt beside my bed to pray, as I do every night before I go to sleep. After finishing my prayer, I opened my eyes but I was no longer in my room. Instead, I found myself in a forest. I looked around and to my right I saw a man, dressed in white, who pointed his finger and said, "See and remember." It took me a while to find out what he was pointing at. It was a small bear who seemed half dead lying on the ground. As I continued to watch this bear, it began to breathe deeper. With every passing minute it seemed to revive itself, and as I watched, it also became angrier. It then began to grow. Soon it was larger than the forest floor and as it grew larger it continued to become angrier. It then began to paw the ground, so that when its paw would hit the ground, the earth would shudder. The bear continued to devastate all that stood in its path until it came upon some men with sticks trying to fend it off. By this the bear had grown so large that it simply crushed the men underfoot and continued to rampage. I was stunned by what I saw and asked the man standing beside me, "What does this mean?"

"At first, they thought the great bear was dead," the man said. "As it will begin to stir once again, they will consider it harmless. Suddenly it will grow strong once more with purpose and violence. God will blind the eyes of those that continue to trample on the sacrifice of Christ's blood, until the day the bear will strike swiftly. This day will catch them unprepared and it will be just as you saw." The man then said, "Tell my people the days are numbered and the sentence has been passed. It they will seek My face and walk in righteousness before Me, I will open their eyes that they may see the danger approach. If they only look to the approaching danger, they too will be caught up and trampled underfoot. Only in righteousness will they find safety." Suddenly, I was once again by myself in my room, on my knees, with sweat covering my face

PROPHECY OF ST. NILUS

I recently discovered an astonishing prophecy that was prophesied about 400 AD, in which a brother named Saint Nilus started with these words: "After the year 1900, toward the middle of the 20th century..." His prophecy included the invention of the telephone, the airplane, and the submarine—all 1500 years before they were invented! He also prophesied the perversion of the churches which has already happened and is continuing to happen now. His prophecy can be found at this website:

<http://olrl.org/misc/fmrosary.shtml>

Saint Nilus wrote:

After the year 1900, toward the middle of the 20th century, the people of that time will become unrecognizable. When the time for the Advent of the Antichrist approaches, people's minds will grow cloudy from carnal passions, and dishonor and lawlessness will grow stronger. Then the world will become unrecognizable. People's appearances will change, and it will be impossible to distinguish men from women due to their shamelessness in dress and style of hair. These people will be cruel and will be like wild animals because of the temptations of the Antichrist. There will be no respect for parents and elders, love will disappear, and Christian pastors, bishops, and priests will become vain men, completely failing to distinguish the right-hand way from the left. At that time the morals and traditions of Christians and of the Church will change. People will abandon modesty, and dissipation will reign. Falsehood and greed will attain great proportions, and woe to those who pile up treasures. Lust, adultery, homosexuality, secret deeds and murder will rule in society.

At that future time, due to the power of such great crimes and licentiousness, people will be deprived of the grace of the Holy Spirit, which they received in Holy Baptism and equally be deprived of remorse.

The Churches of God will be deprived of God-fearing and pious pastors, and woe to the Christians remaining in the world at that time; they will completely lose their faith because they will lack the opportunity of seeing the light of knowledge from anyone at all. Then they will separate themselves out of the world in holy refuges in search of lessening their spiritual sufferings, but everywhere they will meet obstacles and constraints. And all this will result from the fact that the Antichrist wants to be Lord over everything and become the ruler of the whole universe, and he will produce miracles and fantastic signs. He will also give depraved wisdom to an unhappy man so that he will discover a way by which one man can carry on a conversation with another from one end of the earth to the other. At that time men will also fly through the air like birds and descend to the bottom of the sea like fish. And when they have achieved all this, these unhappy people will spend their lives in comfort without knowing, poor souls, that it is the deceit of the Antichrist. And, the impious one; he will so complete [merge] science with vanity, [so] that it will go off the right path and lead people to lose faith in the existence of God.

Then the all-good God will see the downfall of the human race and will shorten the days for the sake of those few who are being saved, because the enemy wants to lead even the chosen [ones] into temptation, if that is possible... then the sword of chastisement will suddenly appear and kill the perverter and his servants.

- 11 -

The following message was given to me in a dream, just as I was waking up. Upon waking up, I immediately went to my computer and typed out the following message:

Oh, America, America!

You were beautiful among the nations! Was there ever a nation like you? You sent your missionaries and envoys to every nook and corner of the earth. You out-shone all of the nations of the world when you led the way to freedom, decency, and godliness.

What nation ever fought a war (at the cost of a half million of her sons) to free a nation (or sub-culture) of slaves? Have not all nations fought wars for selfish, greedy purposes, to take their neighbor's land, to avenge some ill that their king imagined? Yet America has fought wars, not only to free her own slaves, but to free nations held captives by Spain, and many Communist nations. Has there ever been such a glorious nation, who sacrificed her own sons in order to set free another people?

Yet what has happened to you today, America? Why have your institutions of learning become battle zones? And your beautiful streets, how is it that many of them have been taken over by gun-toting gangs of juveniles? Your parks and mountains were beautiful—"purple mountains' majesty"—now being ruined by acid rain, by liters of beer cans, by run-off of waste water from a thousand factories!

The children, the precious children; what has happened to them? Who turned them into bleary-eyed monsters? Was it the boob-tube that has turned many of them into zombies? Who taught them to carry weapons into their classrooms and playgrounds. For what purpose do they go into the classroom? To hate, to kill, to spread rebellion and profanity?

Oh, America, America! How I wish that my head were full of water, and my eyes were rivers of tears—so that I could weep all night for your children, your boys and your girls who begin having babies before they're old enough to know their left hand from their right hand!

And your churches, America, and most of all your churches and your synagogues that were once depositories of truth. Haven't many of them become money-making enterprises, social clubs, hide-outs for those who conspire acts of destruction?

Where is your heart, America? Is it turned to getting more and more for yourself, and forgetting your less-fortunate brother? Didn't America become great while helping her neighbor, spreading her missionaries to the ends of the earth, while showing good-will to all men? Have you forgotten, America, where your prosperity and abundance came from? Did it come from your own hand, or did it come as a blessing from the magnanimity of a God who rewards our kind deeds?

Consider your own minorities, oh mountain of America. Your black people danced in the streets when your beloved President Lincoln issued the proclamation freeing the slaves. Consider this carefully, Oh America: Those who once danced in the streets, why are they today rioting in the streets? Is it because you have harbored hatred and prejudice in your hearts against them?

Turn, turn, from your evil ways, Oh America, with all your heart, so that the blessings of the Almighty God may once again be with you.

Can some people foretell the future? Read about prophecies spoken 10, 20, and 30 years ago, that have already proven to be true [one of them over 1500 years ago]. Some prophesied corruption in the church world, in the social world, in the political world. Some prophesied that many ministers would be found unfaithful, some that children would be preaching the gospel, some that revivals would take place in the streets rather than in the churches. There are specific prophecies about the Third World War and the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Read these prophecies and judge for yourself if many of these prophecies have not already happened and if these messages don't "ring true."
